Inc., and YKK Snap Fasteners America Inc., n/k/a LBK Real Estate Corporation, and Coats Holdings, Ltd., Coats Holdings, Inc., Coats American, Inc., d.b.a. Coats North America, Coats North America de Republica Dominicana, Inc., and Coats & Clark, Inc., after a duly-noticed final approval hearing held on January 10, 2014, and the Court expressly finding, pursuant to Rule 54(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, that there is no just reason for delay, the Court expressly directs the entry of the following Final Judgment as to Prym:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

1. This Court has jurisdiction to enter this Judgment.
2. The Court finds, for purposes of this settlement only, that the prerequisites for a class action under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 23(a) and (b)(3) have been satisfied. The Court certifies for purposes of this settlement only, pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this action as a class action on behalf of a Settlement Class of all persons and entities who purchased zippers, snap fasteners, jeans buttons, hooks and eyes, clamping locks, clip fasteners and rivets, whether made of metal or plastic, used for fastening materials together in products used primarily in the textile, apparel, footwear, and luggage industries ("Fasteners") in the United States directly from a Defendant during the period from and including January 1, 1991 to and including September 19, 2007. Excluded from the Settlement Class are Defendants and their predecessors, successors, parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, divisions and governmental entities.

3. The Court finds that due and adequate notice was provided of the settlement with Prym, pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, to all members of the Settlement Class. The notice provided was the best notice practicable under the circumstances and included individual notice by first class mail to all members of the Settlement Class who could be identified through reasonable effort, notice published in The Wall Street Journal, and notice posted on the Internet on a website dedicated to this litigation, www.FastenersAntitrustLitigation.com. The Court finds and concludes that the notice provided fully complied in all respects with the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and due process.

4. The Court finds that due and adequate notice was provided pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1715(b) to the Attorney General of the United States and to the Attorneys General of the Fifty States, as well as the Attorneys General of American Samoa, Guam, Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands.

5. The Court finds that the Settlement Agreement between the Class Representatives for the Settlement Class, on the one hand, and Prym on the other (ECF No. 124-2) (the "Settlement Agreement"), is fair, reasonable and adequate. The Settlement Agreement is hereby approved pursuant to Rule 23(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

6. The Court finds that American Soccer Company, Inc. (dba Score Sports), 726 E. Anaheim Street, Wilmington, CA 90744 ("Score Sports"), and no other Settlement Class member, has timely requested to be excluded from the Settlement Class and accordingly is not included in or bound by the Final Judgment being entered pursuant to this Order.

7. All claims of the Class Representatives for the Settlement Class and the Settlement Class that were asserted against Prym in the Actions included in MDL Docket No. 1912 (the "Actions") are dismissed with prejudice, with each party to bear its own costs (except as provided for in the Settlement Agreement).

8. The Class Representatives for the Settlement Class and each member of the Settlement Class (other than Score Sports) are permanently barred and enjoined from prosecuting against jointly and severally, individually and collectively, Prym and its parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, divisions, predecessors and successors, and their respective past and present officers, directors and employees (but does not include any other person or entity other than Prym and does not include any current or former officer, director or employee of Prym who is determined by Settlement Class Counsel to have refused to comply with a request by Settlement Class Counsel, made under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, that the person be interviewed, provide a declaration or affidavit, or appear to testify at deposition or at trial and to testify, without invocation of his or her right against self incrimination, concerning alleged anticompetitive behavior relating to the manufacturing, marketing and sale of Fasteners) (“Releasees”), all manner of claims, demands, actions, suits, and causes of action, damages, and liabilities of any nature, including, without limitation, costs, expenses, penalties, and attorneys’ fees, whether class, individual, or otherwise in nature, that jointly and severally, individually and collectively, Plaintiffs and the Settlement Class Members and their parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, divisions, predecessors and successors, or any of them, ever had, now has, or hereafter can, shall, or may have, directly, representatively, derivatively or in any other capacity against Releasees, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, in law or equity concerning sales of Fasteners to customers who purchased Fasteners in the United States prior to the end of the Class Period based in whole or in part on the facts, occurrences, transactions, or other matters alleged in, or that could have been alleged in, the Action against Prym, regarding Fasteners, which arise under any United States federal or state law, including any United States federal or state antitrust or consumer protection law, including, without limitation, the Sherman Antitrust Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1 et seq.; provided, however, that nothing herein shall release: (1) any claims based upon indirect purchases of Fasteners; (2) claims for any product defect, breach of contract, or similar claim relating to Fasteners; or (3) claims under laws other than those of the United States.

9. Each member of the Settlement Class (other than Score Sports) has expressly agreed to waive and release, and shall be deemed to have waived and released, any and all provisions, rights and benefits conferred by §1542 of the California Civil Code, which reads:

Section 1542. Certain Claims Not Affected by General Release.
A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him must have materially affected his settlement with the debtor; or by any law of any state or territory of the United States, or principle of common law, which is similar, comparable or equivalent to §1542 of the California Civil Code. Each member of the Settlement Class (other than Score Sports) may hereafter discover facts other than or different from those which he, she or it knows or believes to be true with respect to the claims which are the subject matter of the provisions of paragraph 9, but each of those Settlement Class members has expressly waived and has fully, finally and forever settled and released, any known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, contingent or non-contingent claim which is the subject matter of paragraph 9, without regard to the subsequent discovery or existence of such different or other facts.

10. Except as provided in the Settlement Agreement, and in this Final Judgment Order, Prym shall have no obligation for any costs, expenses, or fees of any of the Settlement Class' attorneys, experts, advisors, agents, or representatives, which expenses are to be paid out of the Settlement Fund as defined in the Settlement Agreement.

11. Nothing in this Final Judgment Order or the Settlement Agreement and no aspect of the settlement or negotiation thereof is or shall be deemed or construed to be an admission or concession of any violation of any statute or law or of any liability or wrongdoing by Prym or of the truth of any of the claims or allegations in any of the complaints in the Actions or any other pleading, and evidence thereof shall not be discoverable or used, directly or indirectly, in any way, whether in any of the Actions or in any other action or proceeding other than to enforce the terms of this Final Judgment Order or the Settlement Agreement.

12. This Final Judgment Order does not settle or compromise any claim by the Class

Representatives for the Settlement Class or any Settlement Class member against any former or current Non-Settling Defendant or alleged co-conspirator or any other person or entity other than the Releasees and all rights against any Non-Settling Defendant or other person or entity are specifically reserved.

13. Without affecting the finality of this judgment in any way, this Court hereby retains continuing jurisdiction for the purposes of implementing and enforcing the Settlement Agreement.

14. Terms used in this Final Judgment Order that are defined in the Settlement Agreement are, unless otherwise defined herein, used in this Final Judgment Order as defined in the Settlement Agreement.

BY THE COURT:

Honorable R. Barclay Surrick
United States District Judge
